Briggs commented that Tony Lapham, former GC, came off second best during his debate with Frank Snapp at George Mason University on 12 March. []

25X1

Thorpe said there are four sessions with Congressional groups next week and asked Admiral Inman for advice on who was to take the lead for each session. Admiral Inman said that McMahon should attend the 16 March HPSCI session which will discuss Presidential Findings. Admiral Inman said he could go if it was necessary, but McMahon advised that his attendance would not be required. Admiral Inman said that Clarke should attend the 17 March SSCI session on the quality of analysis. Admiral Inman noted that this session had been rescheduled so Clarke, who was out of town when the original session was scheduled, could attend. Admiral Inman said the Director plans to present the CA budget proposal to the SSCI on 18 March and the HPSCI on 19 March. []

Lehman reported that at the request of Secretary Haig, the NIC is preparing an IIM on Arms to El Salvador which is to be completed by 18 March. Only CIA, INR, NSA, and DIA will be involved in its preparation.

25X1

Admiral Inman noted he and Lehman had attended the 12 March SIG meeting on East-West Relations and that the SIG hopes to have a paper completed in a month. []

25X1

McMahon noted that [] briefed a number of Congressmen on 12 March on El Salvador and that the briefing went well. McMahon noted that several Congressmen felt it was the best briefing they had received from the Community. []

25X1

25X1

25X1

Admiral Inman noted that NFIB and NFIC began on 12 March and that he now is trying to get the Community to consult and advise the Director on various issues. []

25X1

Admiral Inman requested OGC to prepare by 17 March a draft paper for Walt Elder on the restrictions of E.O. 12036. The paper will be circulated by Elder to NFIB members for use at a NFIB meeting the week of 23 March. The NFIB will provide counsel to the Director before he has to testify on any legislation effecting the Executive Order. []

25X1

Admiral Inman commented he wants to assure the NFIB that their advice is being solicited on issues and that having meetings to approve papers and decisions, rather than having them concurred telephonically, is a way to do this. He added, however, that in the case of the IIM due on 18 March, telephonic concurrence will be required because of the time constraint.

25X1

UNCLASSIFIED

Admiral Inman said that NFIB will meet every other week and the NFIC will be on call.
